

HATS PROFESSIONAL OF THE YEAR Awards & Dinner Celebration

JUNE 20, 2019

BOTANICAL GARDENS GRAND HALL

DETAILS

HATS (The Huntsville Association of Technical Societies) is celebrating our 50th anniversary! HATS has supported the Huntsville community since 1969 and is proud to host The 14th Annual Professional of the Year Awards Dinner. HATS invites all of The Huntsville Association of Technical Societies affiliated organizations to recognize their "best of the best" members for their contributions to their respective organizations and the community.

For 2019, we are excited to host the dinner at the new Grand Hall at the Huntsville Botanical Gardens. The doors will open at 5:30, with cocktails available for an hour, and dinner starting at 6:30. The fun-filled evening will include:

- Deborah (Debbie) McLemore-Baugh, Lead PM for Army Futures Command
- Bill Roark, co-founder of Torch Technologies and co-founder and CEO of Starfish Holdings

AWARDS

The event will include the presentation of our member society nominees for the following awards:

- Joseph C. Moquin Award for HATS Professional of the Year
- Huntsville Technical Society of the Year
- Bill Roark Award for HATS Young Professional of the Year

Individual Seats for the dinner are $60. To reserve your seats contact board@hats.org or visit www.hats.org.
